

The equal visual distribution of weight in a design.

SYMMETRICAL
ASYMMETRICAL RADIAL

Draw your own examples of balance using line, shape and color.

LINE

SHAPE

COLOR

PRINCIPLES OF DESIGN

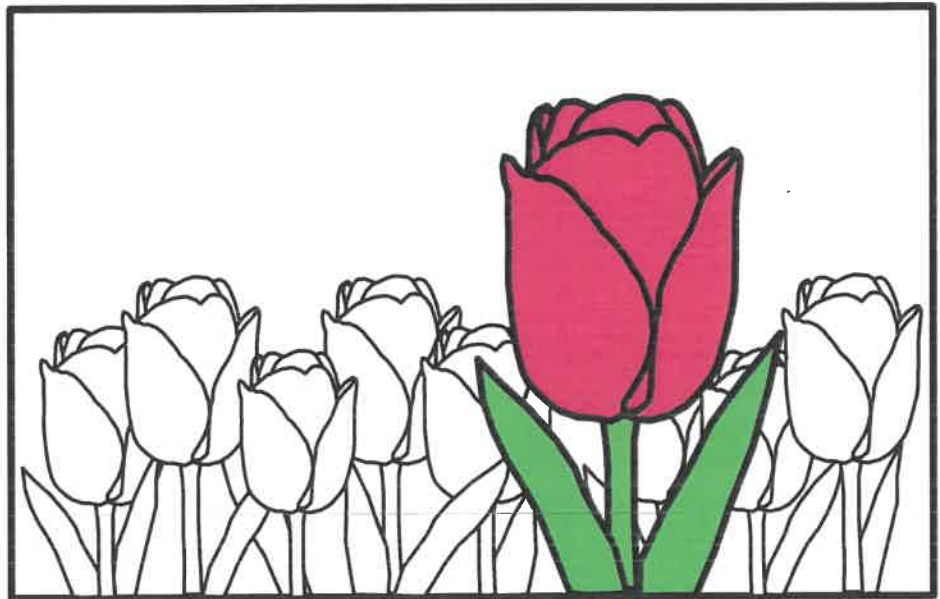

EMPHASIS

The focal point that captures the viewer's attention.

LINE

SHAPE

COLOR

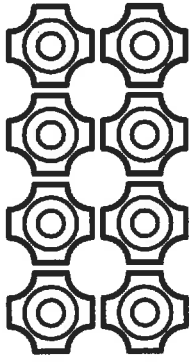

Draw your own examples of emphasis using line, shape and color.

LINE

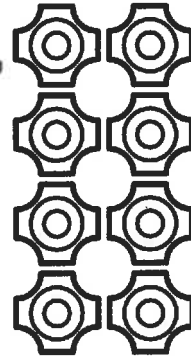

SHAPE

COLOR

PRINCIPLES OF DESIGN

PATTERN

Elements that repeat in a predictable way.

LINE

SHAPE

COLOR

Draw your own example of pattern using line, shape and color.

PRINCIPLES OF DESIGN

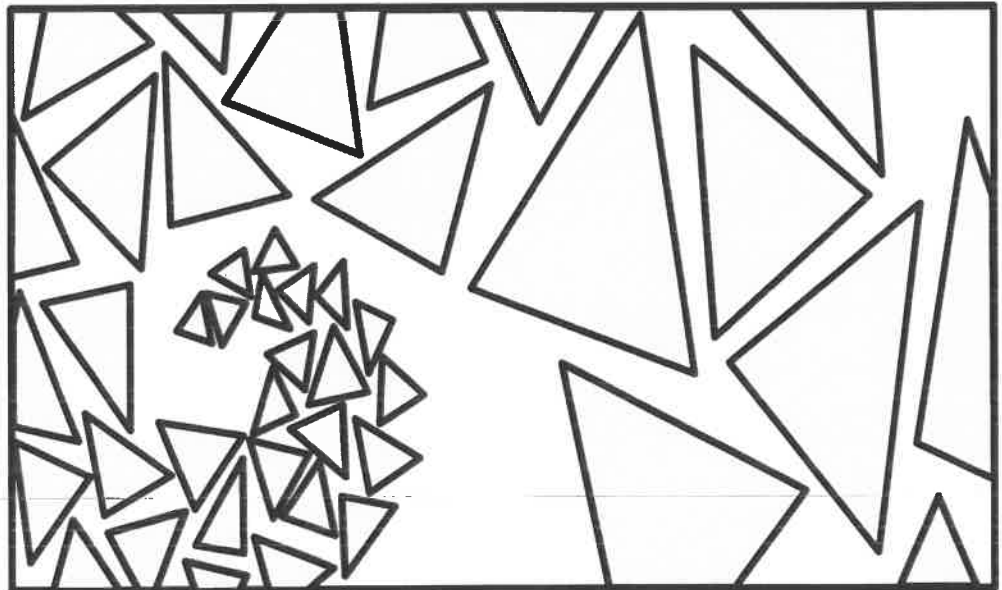

RHYTHM

Creates a sense of organized movement.

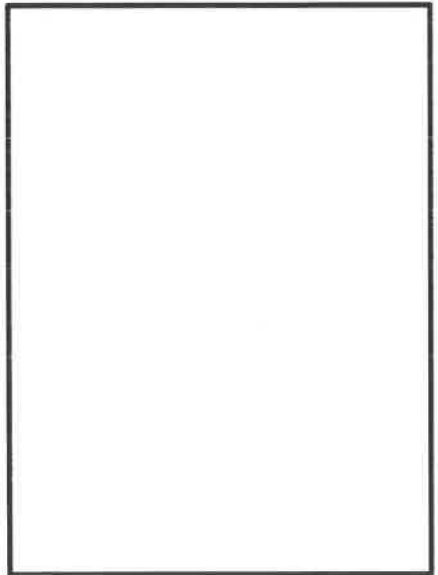

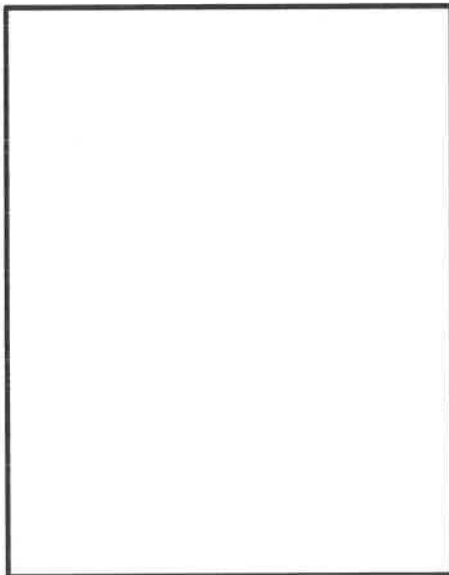

LINE

SHAPE

COLOR

Draw your own examples of rhythm using line, shape and color.

PRINCIPLES OF DESIGN

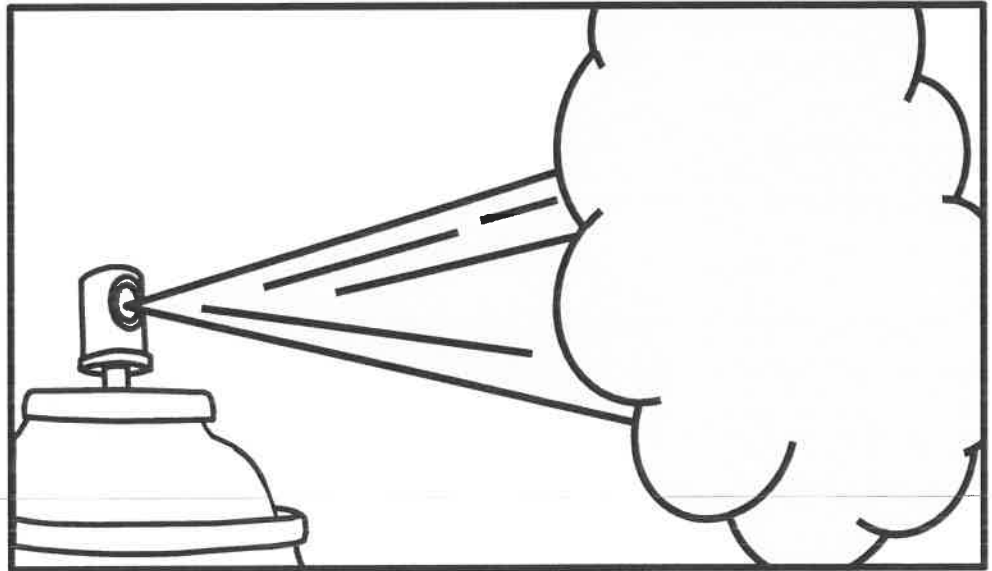

MOVEMENT

The path a viewer's eyes take through a work of art.

LINE

SHAPE

COLOR

Draw your own examples of movement using line, shape and color.

LINE

SHAPE

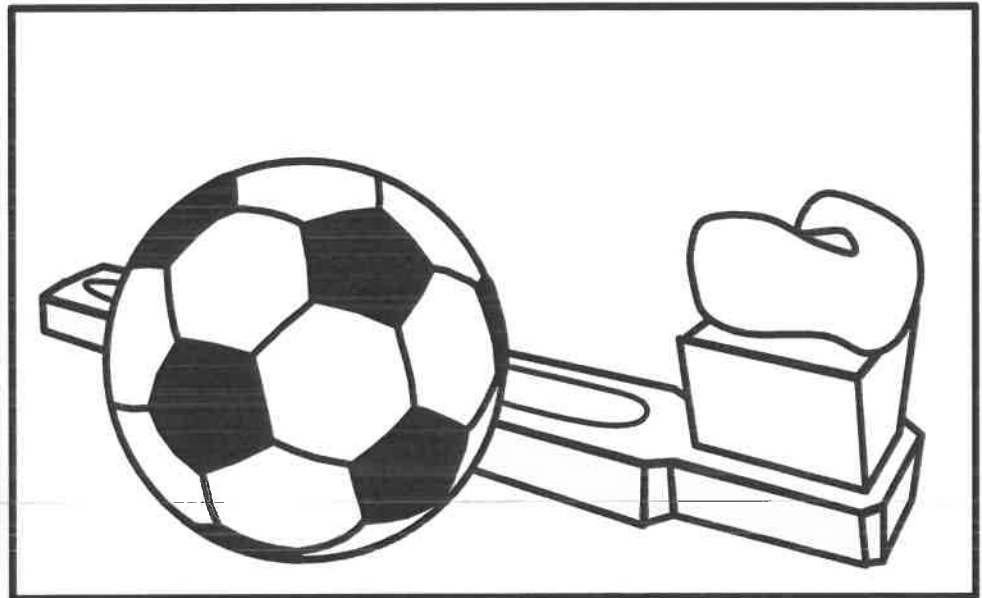

COLOR

PRINCIPLES OF DESIGN

PROPORTION

The size relation between two or more objects.

STANDARD PROPORTIONS

ALTERED PROPORTIONS

Draw your own examples of standard and altered proportions below.

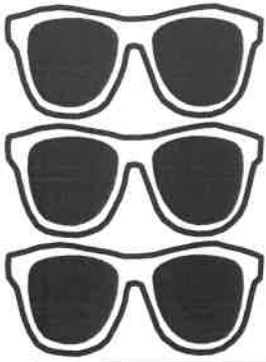

FACE PROPORTIONS

Blank space for drawing face proportions.

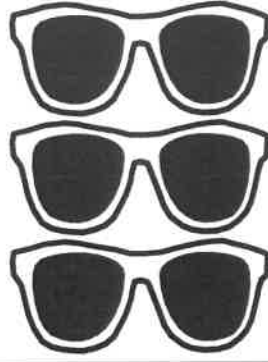

Blank space for drawing face proportions.

Blank space for drawing face proportions.

PRINCIPLES OF DESIGN

UNITY

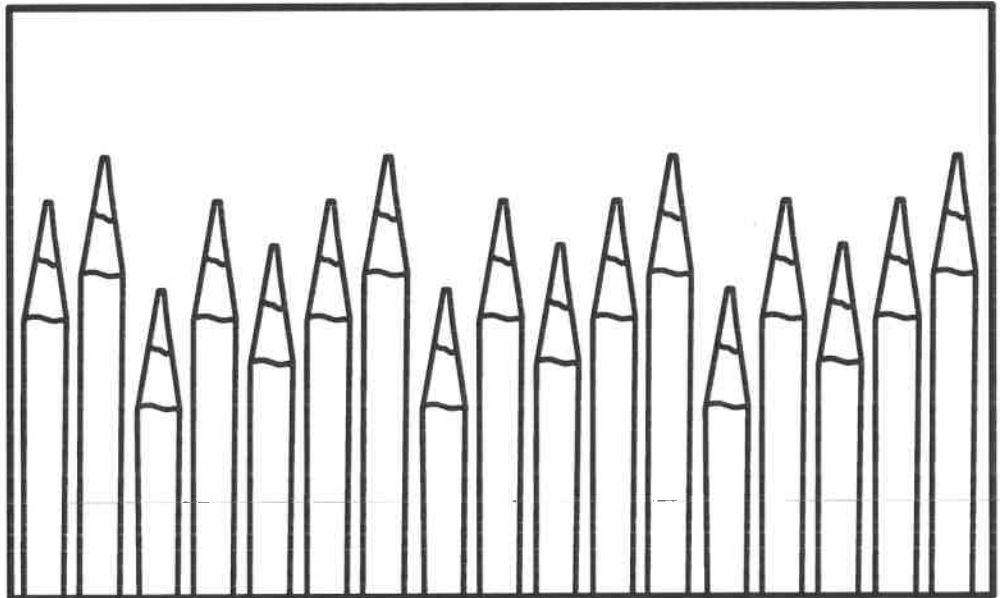

Harmony between elements which create a sense of completeness.

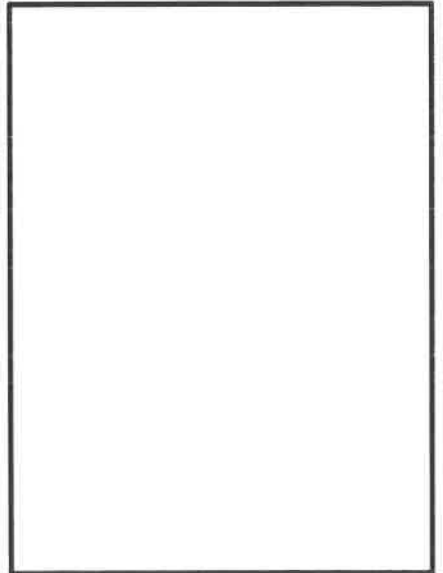

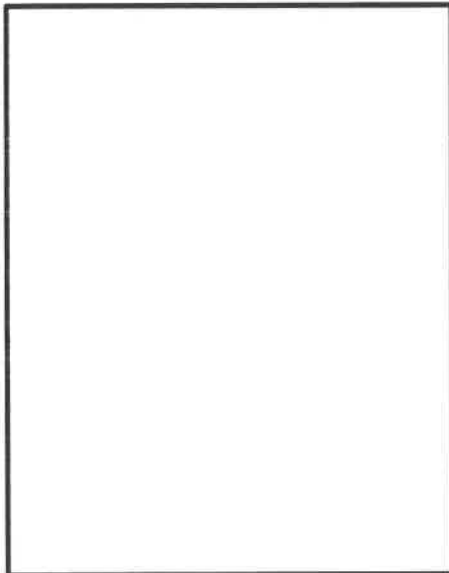

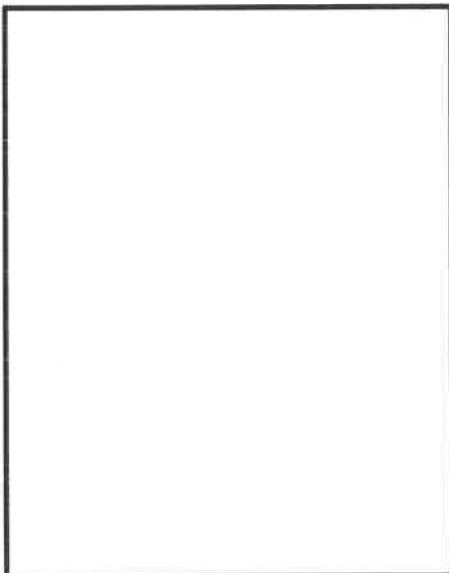

LINE

SHAPE

COLOR

Draw your own examples of unity using line, shape and color.

PRINCIPLES OF DESIGN

CONTRAST

Visual interest created by the arrangement of opposite elements.

LINE

SHAPE

COLOR

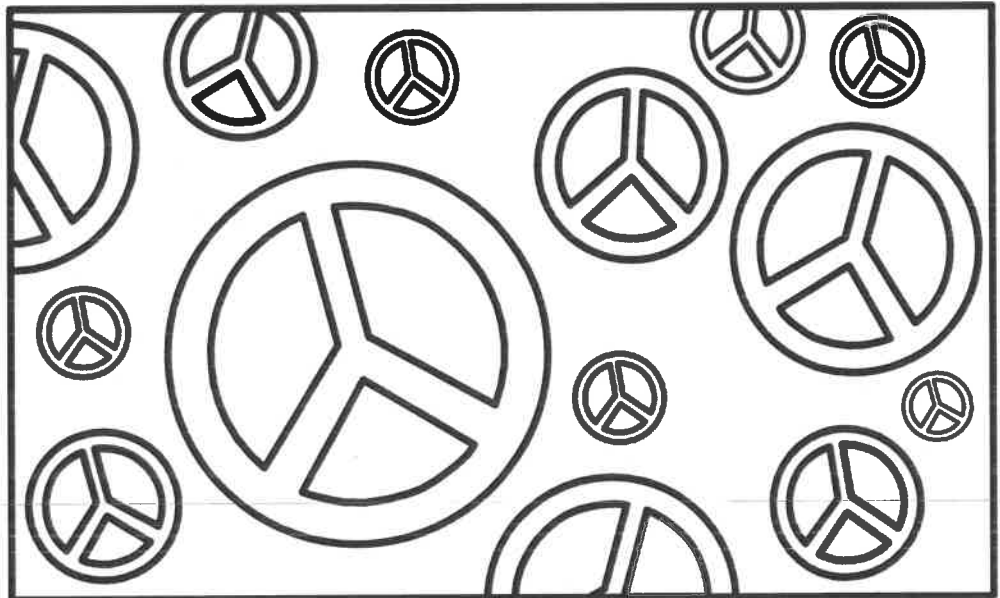

Draw your own examples of contrast using line, shape, and color.

--	--	--

REPETITION

Unity created by repeating elements of art.

LINE SHAPE
COLOR

Draw your own examples of repetition using line, shape and color.

--	--	--

PRINCIPLES OF DESIGN

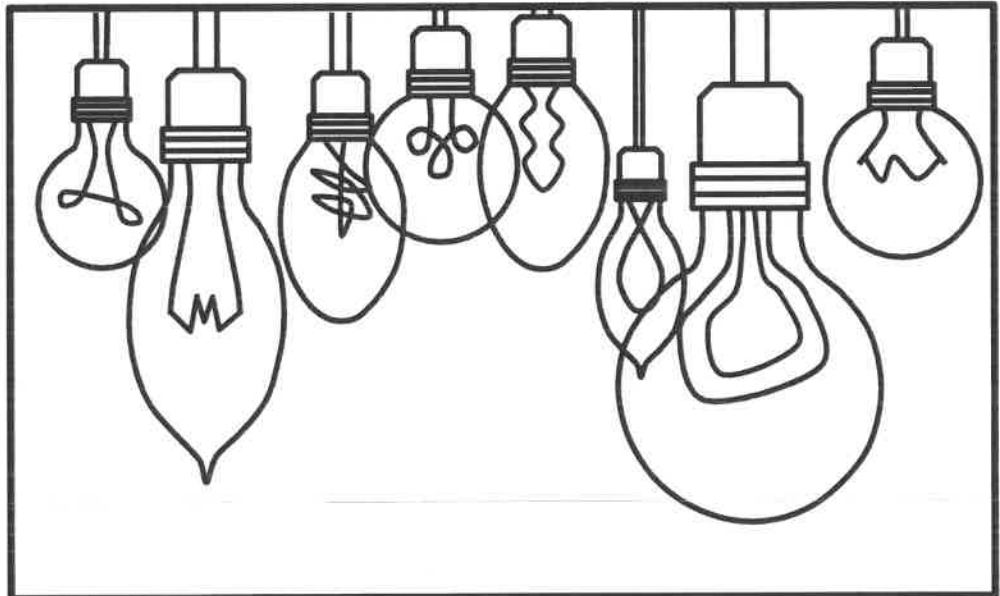

VARIETY

The use of different elements to add interest to a work of art.

LINE

SHAPE

COLOR

Draw your own examples of variety using line, shape and color.

Blank rectangular box for drawing examples of variety using line, shape, and color.

Blank rectangular box for drawing examples of variety using line, shape, and color.

Blank rectangular box for drawing examples of variety using line, shape, and color.